FAI Air Sports at The World Games 2013
Conditions of entry

All participants hereby:

1. Commit to compete in The World Games 2013 if they are officially invited and agree to fulfil all requirements of the FAI Sporting Code and IWGA The World Games 2013 rules.
2. Confirm that they understand that they will be filmed, photographed, taped and recorded by any means as authorised by the FAI or IWGA, who shall have the right to copyright use and licence others to use, in any manner, all or any portion or reproductions of such films, photographs, tapes, recordings, without limitation in time or space. The above authorisation extends to films, photographs etc. of the flying equipment used during The World Games 2013 including trademarks, trade-names, etc. appearing on such flying equipment.
3. Agree to take part in any interviews, demonstrations or exhibitions when asked by the FAI.
4. Agree to carry promotional items such as stickers or other material for the benefit of the FAI.
5. Accept to carry one or more mini-cameras when asked by the FAI, providing that flight safety is not adversely affected. All images produced by these cameras may be used and distributed by the FAI or The World Games 2013 in any manner as described in (2) above.
6. Confirm that participants' names and/or profile details and any other personal elements they have provided may be used in any media in connection with their participation in The World Games 2013.
7. Understand that the representation of any personal sponsors is subject to approval by The World Games 2013.
8. Understand that they are subject to anti-doping testing during the whole of the period of The World Games 2013.
9. Understand that they must make appropriate recompense for damage, breakages or theft for which they are responsible.
10. Agree to represent the FAI and The World Games 2013 to the highest possible standard and to make every effort to produce a successful and exciting event.

This release, its validity and implementation shall be governed by Swiss Law. Any dispute arising from or in connection therewith shall be exclusively settled by arbitration in accordance with the Code of Sports-related arbitration of the Court of Arbitration for Sport. The Arbitral Court shall consist of a single arbitrator.
