

competitions & records gives structure to well organised competitions on an international level contributions to the sport organising WG and SC meetings accomplish a lot openness to change competitions great people depth of experience a lot of knowledge and expertise new junior & women's championships volunteers who do a lot of work passion quality events international authority central & recognized decisions promotion of a beautiful sport well positioned between FAI & international organisations implementation of technology Members can draw on the experience of the CIA to help local ballooning represents competitors well most major objectives are well-served clearly defined statutes

Strengths

What does the CIA do best and what works great?

