1.1.2 Administration

Since 2008 World Gliding Championships have been divided into two events within the same calendar year at different places due to 6 classes in competition. 6 World Gliding Champions will be awarded in two events.

WGC Club Class, Standard - and 15 m Class

WGC Open Class, 18 m Class and 20 m Multi Seat Class

In the subsequent calendar year the 13,5 m Class WGC, the Women's WGC and the Junior's WGC will take place so far. Due to the pandemic Covid 19, the FAI sporting calendar 2020 had to be adjusted. The FAI World Gliding Championships had to be cancelled or postponed.

The FAI Challenge Cups and FAI Challenge Team Cups shall be kept by the winners until the next World Gliding Championships take place and shall be returned to the organisers of the WGC before the start of the next championships. This is applied to the Robert Kronfeld Challenge Cup and Göran Ax Memorial Trophy as well.

The World Soaring Cup will be awarded to the new IGC CHAMPION PILOT OF THE Year as soon as practical at the conclusion of the final WGC of the Championship Calendar Year. The winner has the option of having the WSC shipped to him/her by FAI Home Office in Lausanne or receiving the WSC at the IGC Plenary meeting normally held in February/March.

The current IGC CHAMPION PILOT OF THE YEAR will surrender the World Soaring Cup to the FAI Home Office in Lausanne on or before December 15th in the year he/she has held the WSC. FAI to make arrangements for shipping the WSC either to FAI Home Office in Lausanne or to the new IGC CHAMPION PILOT OF THE YEAR.

A historical record of the IGC WORLD SOARING CUP will be kept in the FAI/IGC archives and every current and former IGC CHAMPION PILOT OF THE YEAR will be chronicled on the FAI/IGC website. As used above, a Championship Calendar Year is the year for which the World Gliding Championship was awarded by the Plenary.

1.1.4 Engraving

The engraving shall include the year and the place of the event, the name and the country of the winner. It is recommended to the holder of the Cup to organise the engraving before the start of the next WGC. The Organisers of World Gliding Championships should ensure that the engravings have been carried out.

1.1.4 Change of rules

If any FAI World Gliding Championships class is discontinued as a World Gliding Championship Class, the FAI Gliding Commission shall decide how and if the respective Cup shall be awarded in the future.
