Proposal:

- IGC bureau to developing a plan in 2022 to bring the IGC's financial situation back to a healthy position as from 2023 and over a period of three up to five years to secure IGC's future operations.
- In the mean time an immediate increase of the Pilot Sanction Fees with 25,00 € per participating glider for all Cat. 1 events in 2022 except for the FAI Junior WGC. The organizers are allowed to increase the entry fee accordingly.

Aim of the proposal:

To secure the financial position of IGC.

Type the reasons in the space below:

IGC-Delegates and Alternates will have noticed in the financial reports that the accounts of the last three years were closed with a serious loss (-24 346,10 € in 2019, -17 830,91 € in 2020 and -25 106,95 € in 2021. Also the draft budgets for 2022 and 2023 – even with an increased sanction fee – are heading the same direction. An action plan is becoming urgent now.

Provide supporting data or reference to external documents for the proposed technical amendments in the space below:

Reference is made to the Financial Report 2021 with
- an 'Overview of the income an expenses for 2020,2021 and budget proposal for 2022 and 2023
- a notice about the IGC financial situation published as a part of the working documents for the upcoming 2022 Plenum meeting. Additional information will be provided as requested in advance or during the meeting.
