INTERNATIONAL MILITARY SPORTS COUNCIL CISM PARACHUTING COMMITTEE

CISM 2012 - REPORT

1) 2012 CISM championships (world & continental level only)

- Unfortunately there was no host for 2012 World Military Parachuting Championships (WMPC)
- In September 2012 Indonesia organised the 1st Asia CISM championships in Jakarta.

2) Future CISM championships

- 37th WMPC is planned for October 2013 in China but the official confirmation is still pending.
- 38th WMPC 2014 is confirmed by South Korea at the same place and date as 6th Military World Games 2015.
- 2015 Military World Games planned date is from 29 September to 09 October in Mungyeong and six other cities in North Gyeongsang Province.

3) CISM Parachuting Rules are available on the CISM website

http://www.cism-milspport.org/eng/003\_SPORTS/016\_parachuting/main.asp

There is close co-operation between CISM and IPC's S&A committee and the goal is to harmonize S&A rules and scoring equipment as much as possible in order to have the same standards for judges and competitors.

For FS in CISM only part of the IPC divepool is used, but the goal is to use only valid randoms and blocks.

4) Judges

The 2012 CISM judges' seminar which was planned to be held in Spain was cancelled.

The next CISM seminar is planned for 2013, either during WMPC or separately. IPC Judges' Committee Chair will get details as soon as the date and place is confirmed.

All CISM judges have to pass an evaluation every two years to remain on CISM list; the list is available at CISM website (link above).

A CISM or FAI category 1 license in two disciplines is needed for being qualified for a WMPC, all other licenses (cat.2, Asiana, national,...) are not valid for judging at WMPC.
