FAI Seminar for Event Directors – 7 to 9 April 2006

Dear Sir, Dear Madam,

*Fédération
Aéronautique
Internationale*

Through its Air Sport Commissions, national member organizations and competition organizers, FAI has accumulated a tremendous wealth of experience and expertise on the organization of international air sport competitions. But in the constantly and rapidly changing world of international sport, air sports face ever-growing competition to keep its share of visibility, recognition, participation and audience.

In April 2006, a FAI Seminar for Event Directors will be held in order to share knowledge gathered in all air sports, and evaluate how FAI can help event directors to add value to their events, especially in universal matters such as media-coverage, sports marketing, environmental and safety issues. The experts listed on the attached provisional agenda have already accepted to share their professional experience with us.

Open to representatives of FAI Air Sport Commissions, FAI Members and persons occupying senior positions in FAI Championship Organizing Committees, this FAI Seminar for Event Directors will be held from 7 to 9 April 2006, at the House of Sport of the Danish National Olympic Committee located in Brøndby, near Copenhagen.

You will find attached initial detailed information, and we cordially invite you to register by 31 January 2006 at the latest. The final agenda and additional preparatory documents will be sent to participants by mid March 2006. Should you need further information, please do not hesitate to contact the FAI Office.

We look forward to meeting you soon in Copenhagen.

With best regards,

Max Bishop
Secretary General
