

Flight Recorder Report

Flight Recorder Approvals:

There were no new flight recorders subject to approval.

Last Competition:

Due to the corona pandemic, there were no international GAC competitions in 2020.

Future:

Again, there are no changes to last year's report.

FAI website | Section GNSS Flight Recorders:

There are clear instructions how to approve a new flight recorder on the FAI website. The current list of approved loggers can be found on the FAI website. The link to the FAI approved conversion software is available on the GNSS Flight Recorders section on the FAI website.
