The International Youth Camp (IYC) is a balloon camp with a long held tradition as this will be the 20th IYC. The camp was first held in Germany as were many subsequent years, however, the camp was also took place in France once and this will be the third time IYC is hosted in the Czech Republic. While the camp is mainly aimed for balloonists, every year we have many new comers some of whom haven't even flown a balloon before the camp. Being a well-established camp, a strong community has been build and many traditions, even from the early days have been preserved such as IYC camp song etc. IYC, as the name suggests, is an international camp and participants from around 10 countries attend every year.
