

REPORT
from the Federation of Aeronautical Sports of Russia on aerospace education activities for 2013

In 2013 the aerospace education activities of the Federation of Aeronautical Sports of Russia were carried out in accordance with the April-2013 recommendations, having been worked out by the CIEA meeting. Major activities were aimed at summarizing the results of the FAI Young Artists Contest-2013 and Russian National Young Artists Contest titled: "My favourite air sport". The modified Young Artists Contest-2013 Participant Certificates (its sample is hereto attached) had been sent to 99 educational institutions-participants of this contest. Over 100 FAS of Russia Diplomas had been sent to the young artists, whose paintings had not been chosen for the FAI Young Artists Contest, but found by the FAS of Russia Jury worthy of appreciation at the national level. Simultaneously the terms of the FAI Young Artists Contest-2014 titled: "Flying to save lives" had been sent to the managers of children's educational institutions. Furthermore, the meetings with prominent air sportsmen (helicopter pilots, glider pilots, aircraft pilots, etc.) had been organized for schools and colleges pupils. 140 children's educational institutions embracing over 300 young artists from 35 regions of Russia had taken part in the FAI Young Artists Contest-2014 titled "Flying to save lives". All paintings have been judged by the FAS of Russia Jury involving the teachers of Children's Art Schools and air sportsmen. 9 best works (3 for each age group) have been chosen and duly sent to Lausanne for consideration by the Jury of the FAI Young Artists Contest - 2014.

In 2013 the FAS of Russia took part in a series of children's art exhibitions devoted to aviation activities and space exploration:

- exhibition in the museum of the Cosmonauts' Training Centre;
- exhibition in the Saint Exupery Library;
- exhibition in the Central House of Aviation and Space

These exhibitions included also the paintings from the previous Young Artists Contests.

The Tushino Exhibition Centre will open the children's paintings exhibition at 6-th of April titled "We are painting outer space".

The results of the FAI Young Artists Contest-2013 have been published in the November-December 2013 issue of the magazine "Aviation and Sports".

FAS of Russia Secretary General

Kh. Makagonova