ANNEX

1. Judging Committee

- 1.1. The judging Committee is in charge of the formation and the selection of the international judges required for:
 - WGAC & WAGAC
 - WAC
 - WAAC
 - WIAC
 - WYAK52AC
 - EAC
 - EAAC
 - EIAC
 - WAG
 - Special events
- 1.2. The Judging Committee (JC) composition is:
 - 1 Chairman
 - 5 members
- 1.3. Elections: each members of the committee are elected every year, during the CIVA plenary (November)

2. Governance

- 2.1. Each member of the Judging committee is able to vote or to give his/her opinion on any subject concerning judging raised by any of them or by others.
- 2.2. The quorum is set to 4 to take any decision
- 2.3. The majority is set to 4
- 2.4. Decision is determined by a simple majority with the Chairman casting a vote as required

3. Judge selection

3.1. Official CIVA judges list

- 3.1.1. Three lists are available on the FAI/CIVA website:
 - Current judges list
 - Reserve judge list
 - Judges of honor list
- 3.1.2. To be on the current judges list, judges must provide current RI data, from national contests, or have a history (RI) of judging the World or Continental Championships of the past three years
- 3.1.3. After 3 years without providing these data, judges will be removed from the

Approved by CIVA: 29/03/2022

3.1.5. Every year, at the plenary or shortly after,, delegates and judges will be asked by the chairman of the JC to:

- Provide data.
- Add / Maintain / remove judges from the lists.

Lists will then be published, at the end of February

3.2. Progression of the judges (Codes in the Int. Judge list)

3.2.1. The code of each judge can be upgraded if:

- RI data are provided by the judge or the NAC delegate from a NAC contest.
- If the judge participates as a judge to 1 International contest.
- If the judge participates as an assistant to 2 international contests.

3.2.2. The upgrade will be, for power aircraft: POW-2 > POW-1A > POW-1U

3.2.3. The upgrade will be for gliders: GLID-2 > GLID-1

3.3. Chief Judge

For each international contest, a chief judge will be elected during the CIVA plenary by delegates.

3.4. Judge selection process and appointment of judge teams

3.4.1. Judges are independent from NACs. A NAC may not remove a judge with a good standing.

3.4.2. Just after the CIVA plenary, the JC will send an invitation to all the judges on the current list. Delegates will also be informed about the beginning of the selection process, to:

- Add / Maintain / remove judges from the lists
- Warn their NAC judges about the beginning of the selection

3.4.3. Judges can send application for:

3.4.4. The judging selection will be done with 3 stages:

Stage 1

- collect the judges applications, and RI data if applicable.
- pre-selection by the chairman and the 5 members of the Judging Committee

All members of the JC will have to check the availability of each application, with:

- RI data
- accordance between experience of each judge and the contest's application
- number of judges from the same NAC
- past behavior of judges

The chairman and the 5 members of the JC will have to validate the application of each judge by a "yes" or "no".

If a judge obtains 4 "no", he will be removed from the selection.

Stage 2

Depending of the number of positions provided by each organizer, and with the judges remaining from stage 1, the chairman of the JC will:

- set judges, depending of their standing overall, in:
- 3 groups for power contests
- 2 groups for glider contests
