Vec THE CHARLES LINDBERGH GENERAL AVIATION DIPLOMA for 2020 – Nomination – Slovakia

Dear Mrs Secretary General,

With reference to FAI Statutes, Chapter 9, paragraph 9.1.3.3. and FAI By-Laws, Chapter 7, paragraph 7.3.1. I am sending the nomination for the Charles Lindbergh General Aviation Diploma for 2020 from Slovakia for

Mr. Ján Chudý

Reasons for nomination:

Mr. Ján Chudý is more, than 25 years Delegate of the Slovak Republic in FAI General Aviation Commission, the International Judge and the International Juror for both Precision and Air Rally flying. He was six times the Contest Director and six times the Member of the International Jury in World or Continental Precision or Rally Flying Championships, many times a Team Manager of the Slovak Flying Team. Ján was Local Chief Judge during many top International General Aviation Events in Slovakia. He is still active pilot with more than 16 thousand flying hours and has more than 50 types in his Log Book.

Since graduating from the University of Transport and Communications, he has been through a number of functions from a single-engine piston pilot to ATPL. He has held important positions in various aviation organizations and institutions such as flight director, Chief of SMS, flight instructor, inspector and CAA examiner.

Yours sincerely
Ján Mikuš
