

NATIONAL YOUNG ARTISTS CONTEST

Procedure to follow for the organization of the Young Artists Contest in your country:

1. Find a volunteer willing to undertake this task. He or She preferably familiar with the aeronautics and/or teaching.
2. Ask for the cooperation of the
 - Education Ministry to dispatch the rules of the contest to primary and secondary schools
 - different air-clubs to dispatch the rules of the contest
3. Send a short article to specialized magazines
4. Ask for the patronage of the Minister of Youth & Sports
5. Look for the participation of an aeronautical association or the National Air & Space Museum to offer the winners an initiation flight or a visit to the Museum
6. Choose Members of the Jury among senior executives from the aeronautics, the education, sports, arts, enterprises and sponsors
7. Fix a deadline date for the schools to send the paintings to your headquarters at least two weeks prior to sending them to Lausanne
8. Organize a meeting of the Jury Members to select the winners in each category of age
9. Send mails to:
 - the winners or their schools, including a copy of the winners' list and a copy of the jury meeting report, inviting them for an aeronautical day to an airfield or to the Air Museum, have a ceremony take place in your headquarters to award prizes to the winners in presence of the President of the Air-Club
 - all schools and parties involved and having participated in the contest with copies of winners' list and jury meeting report, to thank them.

It remains up to you to operate in accordance with your way of thinking and apprehending the subject in your country.

Should you wish any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me through the FAI.

Suzie M.GEBB