New FAI Retro-Look Items and FAI World Air Games Photo Book at Your Fingertips

Lausanne, Switzerland, 6 June 2016 – FAI has launched its new official e-shop that includes an exciting new range of retro-styled items for men and women and the photo book of the FAI World Air Games Dubai 2015.

The e-shop gives pride of place to the new retro range which has been created to offer casual apparel in quality material for all seasons. It includes t-shirts, polo shirts, hoodies, an aviator jacket and a baseball cap. Accessories such as badges complete the collection.

“The Sky is Our Stadium” gathers in one book the very best shots of the FAI World Air Games Dubai 2015.

The “classic” FAI official shirts, polo shirts, ties continue to be available, as well as other items including badges and pins.

An important detail to note about the new e-shop is that all orders placed from the European Union are shipped from France, which saves European customers the hassle of dealing with import taxes. Other orders, from Switzerland and the rest of the world, are shipped from Switzerland.

The payments are made through a secure payment system which allows users to proceed to check-out with their credit cards.

FAI is partnering with Many Ways, a Swiss company that already manages several sport-related online shops such as that of the Olympic Museum in Switzerland, for the production and design of the clothes, and for the handling of the e-shop.
