Jury President recived a protest from 7 NAC regarding extensions on two competitor's wingsuit

The protest is read and considered valid so it is accepted.

The complaint preceding the protest is read and discussed.

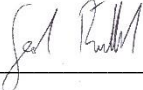

CJ Mike Pennock is called for inquiries at 19:02. He is questioned on the previous complaint. He explains that, as detailed in his written answer to the complaint, he has inspected both riggs and they are according to the rules.

The FRA suit presents no doubt and is according to the rules without any doubt. The jury sees the photos taken which confirm his assessment.

Due to the novelty of the ITA suit he had taken the precaution to mark all 4 removeable components with his signature in the initial pre-event checking and after checking it again, the suit is the same with no alterations. It was declared valid and according to the rules.

Decision:

The jury decided that the CJ will conduct another inspection on the 2 competitor's suit after they land from the 1st jump tomorrow, estimated to be load 3. And continue from the findings with the procedure.
